

The John S. Goldkamp Memorial Scholarship

Description

The Pretrial Justice Institute (PJI) is pleased to announce that for an eighth year, it will sponsor a scholarship to attend the National Association of Pretrial Services Agencies' annual training conference. In 2013, in honor of former PJI board member and long-time pretrial researcher Dr. John S. Goldkamp, the annual scholarship was named the John S. Goldkamp Memorial Scholarship. PJI will cover the conference registration fee, air and hotel (room and tax) expenses to Pittsburgh, PA for the duration of the conference, Sunday September 10-13, 2017. All travel arrangements must be made through PJI.

Eligibility

- ◆ Applicants may be any criminal justice system stakeholder who would benefit from the educational and networking opportunities offered by attendance at the NAPSA Conference.
- ◆ Applicants cannot be NAPSA Board Members, individuals who work for a for-profit company or organization.
- ◆ PJI reserves the right to select the scholarship winners, in keeping with the honor of Dr. Goldkamp.

Application

An application will only be considered if the application form is completely filled out, has the required signatures, and is accompanied by the required typed essay. The essay must be between 350 and 500 words. Please respond to the following question: "How will attending the NAPSA Conference help you with your work?" Following the conference, you will be required to submit a blog entry to PJI for publication, sharing your conference experiences and how it affected your work after returning home.

Deadline

All materials must be received by email by 5:00PM EDT on Friday, June 16, 2017. Materials must be sent to Jeanine Burchard (jeanine@pretrial.org). Please put "Goldkamp Scholarship Application" in the subject line of the email. Recipients will be notified by Friday July 7, 2017.
